25X1 12. [] - JGO) Talked to Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and gave him a brief outline of the reported small-scale Haiti invasion. See Memorandum for the Record.

25X1 13. [] - LLM) Nick Van Nelson called, from Representative Charles E. Bennett's office (D., Fla.), and he is coming by Tuesday, 25 September to visit the Headquarters building. (See Journal Item 6, Wednesday, 12 September.)

25X1 14. [] - JMM) Senator Stuart Symington called to ask if I had received a copy of his letter to the Congressional Quarterly concerning General Walters. I said we had not. He said he did not like to write letters of this kind but he thought in the present case it was justified.

The Senator then said he had recently talked to U. Alexis Johnson about the Soviet missile developments and was concerned about the "pop-up" launching technique. He said he would like Carl Duckett to come over and brief him on the matter tomorrow morning. After checking with Duckett's office I called the Senator back to make a date for 10:30 a.m.

25X1 15. [] - PLC) Called Charles Scott, in the office of Captain Hopkins, Chairman of the working group preparing the Administration's bill on uniform policies and procedures for Government procurement, and requested an extension to the end of this week for the transmission of Agency comments to the latest draft. OGC and [] OL, has been advised.

25X1 16. [] - RJK) Delivered to the offices of Senator Edward Kennedy (D., Mass.), Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.), Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) and J.W. Fulbright (D., Ark.) [] items in which their names were mentioned.

25X1 17. [] - RJK) Left two maps of the Soviet Union at the receptionist desk for Mr. Humphreys, on the staff of Senator Jennings Randolph (D., W. Va.).
